ABOUT ME

I am a passionate Frontend Developer focused on building intuitive and highly responsive web applications. My core expertise lies in translating raw Figma/XD designs into clean, maintainable code using HTML, CSS, React.js, Next.js, Tailwind CSS, and Material UI. Alongside modern JavaScript frameworks, I have extensive experience in custom WordPress development, leveraging Elementor and ACF to create dynamic, easy-to-manage websites. I thrive on bridging the gap between design and engineering to deliver pixel-perfect, high-performance digital experiences.
